American Law Is Common Justice

United States District Judge Estee arrived in the Australia this morning accompanied by Miss Estee, Miss Ryan and Mr. Mailing who will act as clerk of his court. When asked as to his plans Judge Estee said: "I have no plans yet. I have come here to set the wheels of the United States District Court in motion. I hope to convince the people of this Territory that American law is common justice." Judge Estee was greeted at the hotel by Justice Galbraith of the Supreme Court. Other members of the bench and bar called during the day.

Mr. Desky Returns.

C. S. Desky returned in the Australia, bringing with him 36 cases of material for the electric railway. Construction and equipment operations on the line will now be pressed with vigor.

ANOTHER MAN GONE.

George Jones, a mounted patrolman, missing since the departure of the Australia on her last trip, is now in San Francisco.

On the day of the departure of the Australia Jones went aboard and got "solid" with some of the crew by setting up the drinks. Then, as a clincher, he stated that he had been sent by the High Sheriff on a chase after an embezzler. He did not know just exactly where he was but that did not make any difference. He would find out later.

Jones owed but very little in town and his departure for the States is viewed in the light of a decision from a mind influenced by intoxicating liquors. On this account, it is thought that he will return home soon.
